

732-870-0800 www.shoremicro.com

The Implementation of a SM-2501, SM-2500, or Sm-250 and a SM-2512 or SM-2503 Intelligent Ethernet Link Protector to create "Double Ended" Redundant Wiring Configurations for "Mission Critical" Server to Switch Connections. This scenario shows how possible wiring caused failures can be avoided when the server and switch are at great distances from each other or the wiring path has the potential of being easily compromised.